MARCH PROGRAM

Remember that song, "Somebody's Watchin' You." No, well anyway the FBI guy is going to make an appearance at our meeting and mentioned that he especially wanted to see our Treasurer show up, because there are a few questions he has for him.

Post Cards From the Past—Part Quatre

by Victoria Clark

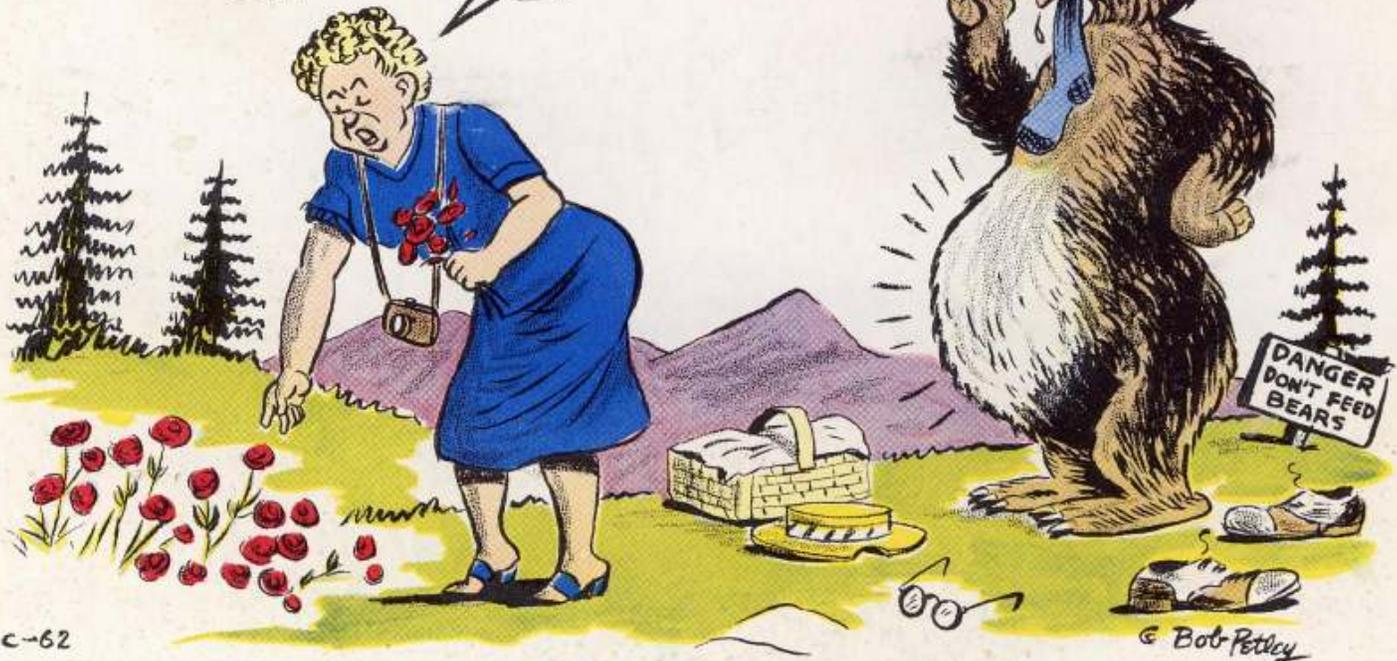

While Arizona can boast of several notable photographers and publishers of postcards, Bob Petley 1912-2006 is probably the best known. Almost anyone who picks up a stack of Arizona postcards would find the Petley or Petley Studios logo on postcards published between the 1950s-1990s. In fact, Bob Petley's company became America's largest distributor of scenic color postcards. At its peak, the company produced 25,000,000 postcards annually which were sold through a network of 3,500 distributors. Petley who had been a commercial artist for such companies as Life Savers and Fisher Body Division, arrived in Arizona to work for The Arizona Republic. Bob began his side line of drawing comic postcards that poked fun at tourists which he named Petley Laf Cards. He hand crafted counter top postcard display racks and the instant success of his sales, prompted him to quit his day job. Not long after that, Bob could be found on top of his van taking photos of Arizona and the Southwest. While the Petley scenic cards were produced in such large numbers that collectors can purchase them today for $1-3, the Petley Laf Cards sell for $5 and up.

Every now and then, mainly then, we staff at Tire Tracks® like to give a boost to young (relatively speaking), aspiring web entrepreneurs. Our endorsement has proven fatal,,,,ah, er, beneficial to many seeking fame and fortune in retirement. Please join us in wishing Sedona Car Club's Al Moss success in his new venture and maybe even make some money. (Actually, we just think he needed the write off. We'll be watching those tax returns!)

Al Moss

If you can't trust this face, with your credit card information, who can you trust?

Happiness is racing a three-wheel Morgan.

MG aficionados. Please check this website on May 12th and join in a birthday celebration . . .

I had so much fun writing The Other Moss. I am now in the throes of writing another book, documenting many of my MG-related experiences over the past 60 years. Stories about the cars, people, the MG factory, etc. Watch for it soon

Welcome to my new website.

Some of you may have actually looked for me here, but in case you just stumbled onto this website, please allow me to introduce myself.

I am E. Alan Moss, (please call me Al). I have been involved with cars and motorcycles almost all of my life. Horses and competitive trail riding were an avid interest for many years, as well.

Perhaps you have heard of Moss Motors, the world's largest supplier of parts for numerous older British Cars. I founded, and sold, that company many years ago.

I am offering a few items for sale which may be purchased here:

- A recently-published autobiography, The Other Moss
- A set of DVDs entitled, Films of the Fabulous Fifties
- An oil seal kit for MG T-Series cars

If you are interested, I'll be happy to fill your order for one or all three of these items.

May you enjoy browsing my website as much as I've enjoyed putting it together.

Thanks for stopping by!

Al Moss

Clockwise from top left - Lorraine Cousins, sexiest; Judy Gain, cutest; Cindy Mortensen, cuddliest; Bill Harrison's friend, tackiest; Ed Pittman, most unusual; Vicki Currie, strangest; Awards were for items they acquired not descriptions of members. (so they tell me) Ask them if they were able to use any of them.
