

President's Letter

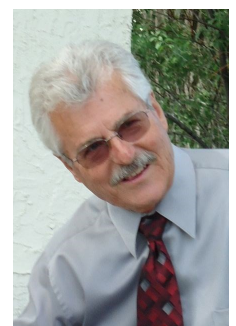

Well, it's almost Christmas time. Hard to believe, but not for me because I am in Arkansas now and it is about 20 degrees, so it feels like a stereotypical Christmas time. We are here to be with our daughter for Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving is a great time for me to express my thanks to all of our members. I want to thank our Board members for all that they do to make our club the wonderful club that it is. Thanks to all of you who bring refreshments and coffee to our meetings, which makes our meetings even more enjoyable. Thanks to those who help with our highway clean-up program. Thanks to everyone who volunteered to help with our ill-fated car show. You will get another chance next year. I want to thank every member for being in our club and making it as good of a club as it is.

Our Christmas party will be soon. I look forward to seeing you there. I am sure it will be a great party for all of us.

Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and Happy New Year to everyone.

David Lombardi
President

Don't call this painter...

A woman answered the knock at her door and found a destitute man. He wanted to earn money by doing odd jobs, so she asked, "Can you paint?"

"Yes," he said, "I'm a pretty good painter."

"Well, there's a gallon of green paint and a brush out back, and a porch that needs re-painting. Be very careful. When you're done, I'll look it over and pay you what it's worth."

It wasn't more than an hour before he knocked again. "All finished!" he reported with a smile.

"Did you do a good job?" she asked.

"Yes, but lady, there's one thing I'd like to point out to you," he said, "That's not a Porsche back there -- it's a Mercedes!"

A Christmas Gift

A guy bought his wife a beautiful diamond ring for Christmas.

After hearing about this extravagant gift, a friend of his said, "I thought she wanted one of those sporty four-wheel-drive vehicles."

"She did," he replied. "But where was I going to find a fake Jeep?"

Come on, Man!

Merry Christmas!
